Buses are wheelchair lift-equipped, but space is limited and riders should choose the option “Travel in your wheelchair” when making their online reservation. On-board restrooms. Mobility assistance, guide dogs and service animals that must be brought along by persons with disabilities are also welcome and transported at no additional charge. For the comfort and safety of the service animal, other passengers and your driver, service animals must be either on the handler’s lap, on the floor at the handler’s feet (not blocking any aisles or exits) or, space permitting, in the wheelchair seating area of the coach. Service animals may not occupy a seat. If a service animal will be accompanying you on your FlixBus ride, please call Customer Service as soon as possible after booking. Reservations can be booked online or via the FlixBus app. Fares vary.
